Reading

- Our aim is to encourage your child to develop their skills enabling them to become lifelong lovers of reading. One of the best ways of doing this is by reading or sharing a story with your child every evening, before bedtime

Did you know that:

- If a child has been read to daily from the day they are born; by the time they are five, they will have heard (and seen as they get older) around 1,277,500 words! (based on a book containing ~700 words – such as ‘The Gruffalo’).
- Developing the skill of reading can be explored anywhere, as one of my favourite poems by Kathy Hendersen explains...
